Moshiach — The Lie of the Jew

Let me make it clear, it has been said before, in Revelation, for those who claim to be Jews but are not. I am going to use the name Jew to mean all those who claim to speak truth, I do not care what they call themselves, Theist or Atheist, Religious or Scientist. If, by definition, you are claiming to be speaking truth, the power of the Universe, you are claiming to be a Jew, you are claiming to speak as God and know judgment. It is that simple. Read it, it is in the Book. Truth is a noun, not a verb.

Is it not written, that everything was created by the voice of God. And was it not said, If you will listen to My Voice, and obey etc. So, Is the voice of God in a little book? Even a big book of your choosing? Is it in your special book, or books? Or is it the same book for everyone? Is it not a fact, a biological fact, that all a mind can do is process information? I.e. Read and Write? Why do self-proclaimed religions, demand a little book takes precedence over the whole book, over all of what God speaks? Why do governments and corporations do the same thing? It is the tactic of the criminal.

Does this not mean, that if one actually cares about God, be that God Perceptible or Intelligible, that you learn what truth is in information processing? You learn to become literate.

Now I was asked to express to mankind just what literacy is, which is rather odd because the principles of literacy is demonstrated to everyone every moment of their life! Why in the hell would I be asked to repeat what God is showing everyone? That is a total mystery to me. Personally, I think there simply has to be a better person which could do what I was asked to do. I do not think anyone would disagree with that.

Even by human standards, literacy in the United States, for example, is in the gutter. I was not asked, however, to demonstrate man's standard of literacy, I was asked to express The Standard of Literacy, the very same standard which is all around you, i.e. point out the Voice of God, whatever you claim God is. I consider that very puzzling. Why is it mankind is ignoring this standard, preferring his own particular brands of gibberish?

So, I will state it as best as I can.

God has given man potentially the most powerful life support system possible, the mind. Its purpose is to process information. So, while I am meandering on, think about this, a computer, a man made machine, infinitely easier to make than any form of life, can process all information using only two parts of speech. Now, why is it, that mankind spends hours and hours pounding on the key board of the computer, only to end up ignoring what it is telling him by its very ability to function and producing gibberish with it?

We classify every thing according to quantity and quality, i.e. nouns and verbs, or again correlatives and relatives, but mankind insists, that there are any number of parts of speech he cares to name simply by pulling them out of his ass?

The Art of Prophecy, given to man, is binary.

Language is Universal and Intelligible, Grammar is Particular and Perceptible. Therefore Psychology is commensurate with the principles of Language functionally resident in the mind as a Grammar Matrix.

Grammar systems can only function in binary. We define, in a particular grammar the unit and then demonstrate how to recursively use that unit.

Therefore, we have symbol sets and methods of recursively using them. This gives us exactly four categories of Grammar; Common Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra and Geometry. Now, I know I have to point out to the typical genius, two times two, equals four. Therefore, I am entitled to say, those who claim that there are more than four, and not by adding them together in some manner, that they are idiots. Two times two always equals four.

Of those four, only one of them, Geometry, pairs the hand in a one to one correspondence with the two parts of speech. I.e. as Written, Geometry, if you have the intelligence, can teach you all your grammar systems.

Grammar is based upon perception, i.e., we perceive relatives and correlatives, two parts of speech.

That is why, part of what I have been asked to do, is construct a geometry library, the likes of which has never before existed. I show the foundation of mathematics, and how to construct computational systems, all of which are exact and produce that exact out-come commensurate with the input, i.e., no processing time. In short, the geometric computer, allows for absolutely no relative difference, even that of time, which can change the answer.

Is it an act of intelligence not to know the foundation of a standard of Speech, presented by God, you can claim God to mean what you will, perceptible or intelligible, the results is the same, but instead, go on like you do not know where you are at, what you are for, and continue to constantly babble gibberish?

Let your assertions be assertions, and your denials be denials; Binary. And then you claim, that it is impossible to show, the intelligence of man, is gibberish? That one day, the wisdom of man will disappear, all of a sudden?

Better want to think about that again.

Binary recursion can only produce a binary result, therefore, as written, Geometry can produce perceptible paradigms, metaphors, of everything you claim is true or false. Line is upon line, and precept is upon precept.

It is not God that is stupid. A stupid machine, the computer tells you, and it is infinitely inferior to the least form of life, how many parts of speech there are, so, it does not matter, if your claims of what literacy is, ignores the greatest or the least of things, you will ignore it, be it said by God, or a stupid machine.

The standard for literacy is very simple, the combination of quality and quantity defines a thing, i.e. noun and verb, be it expressed in Common Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra, or Geometry. Now how freaking hard is it, to follow two simple concepts correctly?

So no, I have not the least clue as to why I was asked to express what everyone should already know. It is rather obvious, if everyone is ignoring the Word of God, the whole speech of the Universe, or even the least capable an inanimate machine, what in the hell can anyone expect of me? I am certainly not going to flatter an idiot. The most powerful tool possible, and mankind ignores it. Incredible. God has given to man the most powerful life support system possible, yet mankind, is, instead, destroying the planet. Give a fool a tool and he will kill himself with it. Who do you think should be arrested? God or Man?

So, tell me again, why is language inferior to the job? I will laugh in your face. You really think that you are superior to God with your constant gibberish. Incredible. Oh, we are Special, chosen of God. Damn right you are SPECIAL.

I have come for Jews. Do you really believe that you are one, one who speaks the truth, yet are provably illiterate? Then why is the Voice of God, never on your lips? The Name of Jew, is earned, it is not taken. How do you earn it? Where is your books, teaching literacy? Where is your books, teaching anything resembling a Grammar Matrix. We arrive in body through one matrix, where is the other such that you know who your parents are? Where is your Grammar Matrix, the one by which you learn to speak, think, judge, act in Truth? Where is the one, by which you learn to be in the image of God, the one by which you prove all judgments?

Now, you understand, why I am confused as to why I was asked to do something not even God can get you to do. Because from the moment of birth, we are all asked to do the same damned thing. Grow a damned brain. The only thing, the only power, we are given by God. So, what is an idiot, a person who cannot, will not, ever be a Jew. A Jew, can demonstrate his birthright, using a Grammar Matrix demonstrating grammar in accordance with the truth of things. So, for the last time, why are people claiming to want to find me, when God is all around you? You have got to be joking, or really stupid. If you cannot find yourself, and you cannot find God, what in the hell do you think you can find? You cannot even find the thing which is used to process all information, so how is it, you think you know what speech even is? A Jew, does their very best, not to lie. The title of this work is an oxymoron. Jews do not lie, and they can prove it using a God given Grammar Matrix. That Grammar Matrix, is what we inherit from God. Where is your inheritance, you who claim, by whatever name you give it, to be a Jew? I was asked to make it, and so were you. The temple of God is the whole damned planet, special one. The whole planet, the whole Universe, is the house of God.

So, the reason is, you have no way to prove who I am I have made clear, you cannot do it, so I do not claim anything about who I am, to do so would mean I am an idiot, just like all those who have claimed to be me, what reason do you think I was asked to show you the standard of Judgment? There is no scientific, no religious sect, which can prove who I am, so no option for quibbling can be given.

Did you really think, there would never come a day, when you are asked to prove that you are a Jew? Really? I think you missed something. The standard you were given to learn and respect, is the standard by which you will be judged. Was that not in the Book? I certainly can pass that test, you cannot.

So, I will repeat it. Unless you become as a child again, and earn your inheritance, you have no place to call home, this House belongs to God. Now, quibble away with each other, it does not matter, the judgment stands.
